Dear All,

We hope this email finds you well.

Please find attached important information regarding due diligence requirements. You must review them thoroughly and take any necessary actions without delay. Compliance with these requirements is critical, and failure to address them promptly may result in significant implications.

Should you have any questions or require further clarification, please do not hesitate to reach out immediately.

Your prompt attention to this matter is highly appreciated.

The above is just in case you ignore my emails by default. You have no more excuses on that day now.

You can read the due diligence information here. <https://hesaid.love/posts/on-commandments-and-the-law/>

In case you are a false teacher repulsed by the truth so much as to not bother with clicking the link above. Here is the important bit.

Before you accuse me of talking the talk and not walking the walking and not knowing love fucking once again simply because you consider the strong words I used in my writings rude and offensive, please contemplate first whether you would call Jesus rude and insist on His own way if you saw Him overturning the tables in the temple courts. I laid down my life and dignity and people did nothing except refer me to mental health services. What would you do if you were in my position? Have you even done the minimum due diligence to find out what happened? Most of the pastors and theologians I spoke to certainly did not bother.

I have zero fucking desire to be the fucking messiah and be involved in this fucking saving the world shīt and 9 times out of 10 I just want this wicked world to burn in hell for eternity for the evil shīt people do.

Consider this email tables overturned and you've been served.

Kind regards,

Aaron Yang
